Announcing the 2008 Arizona Adult Education Joint Institute: “Taking The Long View”

As the theme “Taking The Long View” indicates, the 2008 Adult Education Joint Institute promises to celebrate the advancements made within Arizona Adult Education as well as an opportunity to prepare for the challenges of the 21st Century. The world has changed and a high school diploma ‘just doesn’t cut it anymore’. The global economy requires skills, experience and knowledge that are attained in post-secondary education, and beyond. This Institute promises to be an enlightening and enriching experience for all participants. It is being held at the Fiesta Inn in Tempe, Arizona from September 24-26, 2008, and expects to bring together some 200 adult educators, including Program Administrators, Instructional Coordinators, GED Chief Examiners and Examiners, and Public Librarians representing basic literacy, correctional education, workforce education, GED preparation, and other areas of adult education.

Registration information, hotel accommodations and more detail on the Joint Institute will be posted on the website as well as information will be distributed via e-mail by August 1, 2008.
